

Contents:

Editorial

Industry News

Product News

Events

Contact Us

[View/Print
Entire Document
\(no frames\)](#)

[Return to EH&S
Software News
Home](#)

People

- 3E Company has appointed Robert S. Christie as chief executive officer. Mr. Christie has more than 25 years of executive management experience, including positions with Thomson Learning, McGraw-Hill Book Company, Standard & Poor's Information, and Publex Publishing.
- Terralink Software Systems, Inc. of Portland has named Carl J. Schroeder director of business development for the pharmaceutical market. Prior to joining Terralink, Mr. Schroeder ran his own business development consulting firm that focused on evaluating and transforming early stage businesses.
- Terralink Software Systems, Inc. has named Robert Evans regional account executive for Terralink in Chicago. Mr. Evans' sales experience includes regional responsibilities for Constructware and LiveWorld, both of Chicago.
- Terralink Software Systems, Inc. has named Jack Kusner regional account executive for the Midwest. Mr. Kusner, who will be based in Cleveland, has business development experience with Divine, and SARCOM, Inc. both based in Cleveland. Previously, he was with Laidlaw Environmental Services developing business for that company's hazardous waste services.

Contract Awards

- Questar Corp., an integrated natural gas company, has selected the Enviance System to replace disparate spreadsheets and databases with a single repository for EH&S data at 25 facilities in Utah, Wyoming, Colorado, and Arizona.
- The South Central Connecticut Regional Water Authority (RWA) has selected Haestad Methods' GIS-based water resource modeling solution, transient analysis software, and ClientCare services to help maintain more than 1,500 miles of water mains serviced by the utility in the greater New Haven area.
- Two of Venezuela's largest utilities (Hidrolara, Barquisimeto; and Hidrocapital, Caracas) have selected Haestad Methods' WaterCAD, WaterGEMS, and SewerCAD water resources modeling software to help comply with regulatory requirements.
- Ennovation has "forged a contractual alliance" with the Great Lakes Commission under which Ennovation will provide